Confirmation of FY25 Guidance

The Platform Group published its Q3 2025 results at the end of last week; FY25 guidance was reiterated: net revenues of €715-735 million and adjusted EBITDA of €54-58 million. In Q3 2025, net revenues came in at €188.6 million, up 35% (vs. PZP €187.4 million, up 34%), and adjusted EBITDA at €12.5 million, or 6.7%, up 170bp (vs. PZP €13.2 million, or 7.0%).

Growth remains extremely dynamic

The Platform Group continues to take full advantage of the network effect, the group's main growth driver. As at 30 September 2025, TPG posted GMV of €902.1 million, up 48%, driven by a sharp increase in the number of partners to 15,931, up 23%, active customers to 6.7 million, up 49%, and orders to 7.6 million, up 49%. Net revenues thus amounted to €531.6 million, up 43%. This growth momentum as at 30 September 2025 was largely driven by Consumer Goods, with revenue of €329.1 million (+57%), although the other segments also performed well: Freight Goods €84.2 million (+24%), Industrial Goods €59.6 million (+18%) and Service & Retail Goods €53.9 million (+23%).

The end of the year should see this growth momentum confirmed, as the group will also benefit from the consolidation of its positions in Pharma – following the acquisitions of Pharmosan, Apothekia and Vamida – and the inclusion of its new Optics & Hearing segment, which generated €6.0 million in revenue (unconsolidated) in the last quarter. We therefore confirm our FY25 topline scenario of €736.2 million, up 40%, in line with the upper end of the guidance.

Strong adjusted EBITDA margin

As at 30 September 2025, TPG posted adjusted EBITDA of €45.8 million, or 8.4% (+180bp), thanks to an improvement in gross margin to 36.7% (+130bp) and a reduction in marketing expenses to 5.8% (-60bp) and HR costs to 5.1% (-30bp) by leveraging the group's platform effect with operational efficiency gains also being driven by AI; distribution costs remained stable at 7.8%. In detail, Consumer Goods remained the leading contributor to adjusted EBITDA at €31.2 million, or 9.5% (+200bp) (critical size, largely optimised structural costs, etc.). Industrial Goods (€2.9 million, or 4.9%, +150bp) and Service & Retail Goods (€4.3 million, or 8.0%, +210bp) also performed well, while Freight Goods posted a slight decline in adjusted EBITDA margin (€6.2 million, or 7.3%, -30bp).

It should be noted, however, that in Q3 2025 alone, the adjusted EBITDA margin came in at 6.7% due to a significant increase in HR costs to 5.9%, most likely due to pre-M&A effects, while the cost structure tends to normalise thereafter. We are nevertheless lowering our FY25 adjusted EBITDA assumptions to €58.9 million, or 8.0% (vs. €62.3 million, or 8.5% previously), in line with the upper end of the group's guidance. The end of the year should benefit from the consolidation of Optics & Hearing, which posted an adjusted EBITDA margin of 26.1% in Q3 2025 (for information purposes).

FY25 EPS are also affected by an adjustment in goodwill and average tax rate assumptions.

Ultimately, TPG has posted solid results, in line with its FY25 guidance. Its cash position also remains healthy, with €15.2 million in available liquidity as at 30 September despite an M&A budget of €39.8 million; net financial debt stands at €121.9 million. We reiterate our Strong Buy (1) recommendation on the stock – target price €21.
