Helmerich & Payne, Inc. Announces Release of its 2022 Sustainability Report

TULSA, Oklahoma, – December 13, 2022 (Business Wire) – Helmerich & Payne, Inc. (NYSE:HP) (“H&P” or the “Company”) today announced that it has released its 2022 Sustainability Report outlining the Company’s sustainability efforts and performance for its fiscal year ended September 30, 2022.

President and CEO John Lindsay commented, “We remain committed to providing transparency in our sustainability efforts and non-financial data. This commitment is best exemplified in our sustainability report, with our second annual report building upon the information we provided in the previous year. We continue to make strides in our sustainability programs that affect many of our stakeholders and this report provides background information into those programs and ultimately reflects how we operate as a company.”

The 2022 H&P Sustainability Report contains information on various sustainability programs including environmental, safety, DE&I, and governance metrics. The report continues to align with leading sustainability reporting frameworks, including the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board, the Global Reporting Initiative, and the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (“TCFD”). A notable addition to the report this year is the introduction of our Quantitative Scenario Analysis in accordance with TCFD recommendations.
