Notes for the financial year from January 1 to December 31, 2023

A. General information

1. Application of statutory provisions

These annual financial statements were prepared in accordance with Sections 242 et seq. and 264 et seq. HGB and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) in conjunction with Article 61 of EU Regulation 2157/2001. The regulations for large corporations apply. The total cost method in accordance with Section 275 (2) HGB was applied to the income statement. The annual financial statements were prepared in euros.

Bike24 Holding AG, as the ultimate parent company, prepares consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2023 in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the European Union. The annual financial statements and the combined management report in accordance with Section 315 (5) HGB for the 2023 financial year will be published in the company register together with the auditor's report.

Bike24 Holding AG (hereinafter referred to as the "Company" or together with its subsidiaries as the "Bike24 Group") is a stock corporation founded in Germany on August 22, 2019 and registered in the commercial register of the District Court of Dresden Department B under the official number 41483. The company has its registered office at Breitscheidstraße 40, 01237 Dresden, Germany.

2. Accounting and valuation principles

The accounting and valuation methods applied to items in the balance sheet and income statement comply with the provisions of commercial law on the determination and classification of profits. The accounting is based on the going concern principle. With regard to the material uncertainty that represents a going concern risk, we refer to the presentation of risks in the combined management report.

The balance sheet items are valued individually as follows:

- Financial assets are recognized at the lower of cost on the reporting date or fair value in the event of permanent impairment.
- Receivables and other assets are generally recognized at their nominal value. The lower of cost or market value principle was observed.
- Cash and cash equivalents are recognized at their nominal value.
- Prepaid expenses were recognized for expenses that will be incurred in subsequent years for a specific period.
- Subscribed capital was recognized at nominal value. The notional value of treasury shares acquired is deducted from the "Subscribed capital" item. The difference between the notional value and the acquisition cost of treasury shares is offset against the freely available reserves.
- Provisions take into account all recognizable risks and uncertain obligations and are measured at the settlement amount that is necessary according to prudent business judgment. Provisions with a remaining term of more than one year are discounted at the average market interest rate of the past seven financial years corresponding to their remaining term.
- Liabilities are recognized at their settlement amount.

- In 2023, a tranche of share options was granted under the existing share option program to two members of the Executive Board and 24 employees in management positions. In addition, target agreements were concluded with the members of the Executive Board and 23 other beneficiaries regarding a possible grant of share options in the 2024 financial year, which is dependent on the achievement of the targets set in the target agreement. The share options vest after one year and can be exercised after a vesting period of four years from the date of grant. Share-based compensation was not recognized in the annual financial statements as at 31 December 2023 in accordance with commercial law. The fair value of all share options issued and not yet exercised by December 31, 2023, calculated in accordance with IFRS 2, amounts to EUR k 2,974.
- When there are differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and their tax base that are expected to reverse in subsequent financial years, the resulting tax burden is recognized as a liability after netting.

- the accompanying combined management report as a whole provides an appropriate view of the Company's position. In all material respects, this combined management report is consistent with the annual financial statements, complies with German legal requirements and appropriately presents the opportunities and risks of future development. Our opinion on the combined management report does not cover the content of those components of the combined management report specified in the Appendix to the Independent Auditor's Report. The combined management report contains cross-references that are not provided for by law. Our opinion does not extend to the cross-references specified in the Appendix to the Independent Auditor's Report or the information to which the cross-references refer.

Pursuant to Section 322 (3) sentence 1 HGB (Handelsgesetzbuch: German Commercial Code), we declare that our audit has not led to any reservations relating to the legal compliance of the annual financial statements and of the combined management report.

Basis for the Opinions

We conducted our audit of the annual financial statements and of the combined management report in accordance with Section 317 HGB and the EU Audit Regulation No. 537/2014 (referred to subsequently as "EU Audit Regulation") and in compliance with German Generally Accepted Standards for Financial Statement Audits promulgated by the Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer (Institute of Public Auditors in Germany) (IDW). Our responsibilities under those requirements and principles are further described in the "Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Annual Financial Statements and of the Combined Management Report" section of our auditor's report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the requirements of European law and German commercial and professional law, and we have fulfilled our other German professional responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. In addition, in accordance with Article 10 (2)(f) of the EU Audit Regulation, we declare that we have not provided non-audit services prohibited under Article 5 (1) of the EU Audit Regulation. We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinions on the annual financial statements and on the combined management report.

Material Uncertainty about the Ability to Continue as a Going Concern

Please refer to the disclosures in Section 2 "Accounting and valuation policies" of the notes to the annual financial statements as well as the information in the Sections "Presentation of risks" in the combined management report in which management describes that the ongoing difficult market situation causes uncertainty as to how consumer behaviour will develop and, as a result, the business of the Bike24 Group. Management has therefore created scenarios as part of a sensitivity analysis. This analysis indicates that, from today's perspective, the financial covenants will be complied with under a realistic and a pessimistic scenario. The pessimistic scenario considers measures such as reducing investment spending, optimising cost structures and other measures relating to inventory management. Both scenarios also include planned refinancing beyond 30 April 2025. Due to the uncertain development of consumer behaviour, the Company may fall short of its budget and thus jeopardise compliance with the financial covenants. Management plans to commence negotiations with the financing banks on long-term refinancing beyond April 2025 in the near future.

As presented in Section 2 "Accounting and valuation policies" of the notes to the annual financial statements as well as in the Sections "Presentation of risks" in the combined management report, these events and conditions show that there is a material uncertainty that could cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue its business activities and which represents a going concern risk within the meaning of Section 322 (2) sentence 3 HGB.

In accordance with Article 10 (2)(c)(ii) of the EU Audit Regulation, we summarise our audit response with regard to this risk as follows:

In the course of our audit, we therefore identified the appropriateness of the going concern assumption as well as the appropriate presentation of the material uncertainty in connection with the ability to continue as a going concern as a material risk and conducted the following audit procedures, among others: with the involvement of our restructuring specialists, we took into account the uncertainties arising from the overcapacities in the bicycle market and the macroeconomic situation with regard to the assessment of the going concern assumption in planning and performing our audit. Our audit procedures included, among other activities, evaluating the assessment of the risks arising from the uncertainties for the Company's revenue and cost development, made by management and the external advisors engaged to assess the plausibility of the budget.

We gained an understanding of the liquidity planning process and discussed the significant planning assumptions with respect to the projected available future cash flows from operating, financing and investing activities and forecast KPIs for future covenants calculations with those responsible. In doing so, we also examined the accuracy of the Company's forecasts.

Furthermore, we especially assessed the significant assumptions in liquidity planning, such as the Group's revenue and cost development. We also compared revenue in the first two months of financial year 2024 with the budget. Furthermore, we compared whether the assumptions are consistent with internal explanations and external market assessments. In addition, we evaluated the reliability of the underlying data.

To take current forecast uncertainty into account, we analysed the effects of various scenarios on liquidity planning that could arise for Bike24 GmbH from the overcapacities in the bicycle market and the macroeconomic situation.

Finally, we assessed whether the disclosures in the notes in conjunction with the ability to continue as a going concern are appropriate.

We do not express a separate opinion on these matters.

The assumptions made by management and the presentation in the annual financial statements are reasonable.

Our opinions on the annual financial statements and the combined management report have not been modified in this regard.

Key Audit Matters in the Audit of the Annual Financial Statements

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the annual financial statements for the financial year from 1 January to 31 December 2023. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the annual financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. In addition to the matter described in the section entitled "Material Uncertainty about the Ability to Continue as a Going Concern" we have identified the matters described below as key audit matters, which must be communicated in our independent auditor's report.

Recoverability of the investment carrying amount of Bike24 Service GmbH

Please refer to Section „2. Accounting and valuation policies“ in the notes to the annual financial statements for more information on the accounting policies applied. Explanatory notes on the business development can be found in the sections "Business performance" and "Condensed report on the Annual Financial Statements" of the combined management report.

The financial statement risk

In the annual financial statements of Bike24 Holding AG as at 31 December 2023, interests in the affiliated company Bike24 Service GmbH in the amount of EUR 114.1 million were recognised under financial assets. Bike24 Service GmbH is sole shareholder of Bike24 GmbH, which in turn is the only company in the Group to generate a significant amount of revenue from third parties. The proportion of total assets made up by financial assets totals 46% and thus has a material effect on the Company's net assets. Financial assets are recognised at cost or, if they are expected to be permanently impaired, at their lower fair value. The Company calculates the fair value of the interests in affiliated companies using the discounted cash flow method.

The cash flows used for the discounted cash flow method are based on individual projections for each investment for the next five years, which are extrapolated based on assumptions regarding long-term growth rates. The respective discount rate is derived from the return on a risk-appropriate alternative investment. If the fair value is lower than the carrying amount, qualitative and quantitative criteria are used to examine whether the impairment is expected to be permanent.

Impairment testing including the calculation of the fair value in line with the discounted cash flow method is complex and the assumptions made depend to a high degree on assessments and judgements of the Company. This applies (among other things) to the estimate of future cash flows and long-term growth rates, the determination of discount rates as well as the assessment of whether impairment is expected to be permanent.

The business outlook for Bike24 GmbH has deteriorated in the past two years as a result of overcapacities in the bicycle market and the difficult macroeconomic environment. Bike24 GmbH was unable to achieve the revenue and earnings growth budgeted for financial year 2023. In view of an expected permanent impairment, the Company recorded an impairment loss of EUR 35.3 million on the investment carrying amount of Bike24 Service GmbH in financial year 2023.

There is a risk for the financial statements that the recognition of impairment losses is insufficient and that the financial assets are therefore impaired.

Our audit approach

First, we referred to explanations of management and assessed documentation to obtain an understanding of the Company's process for impairment testing of the financial assets held. In doing so, we examined the Company's approach to determining the need to recognise impairment and, based on the information obtained during our audit, assessed whether there were any indications of further impairment that had not been identified by the Company.

With the involvement of our valuation and restructuring experts, we then assessed the appropriateness of significant assumptions and the valuation method used by the Company to determine fair value. For this purpose, we discussed the expected cash flows and the assumed long-term growth rates with those responsible for planning. We also reconciled this information with other internally available forecasts and the budget prepared by management and approved by the Supervisory Board. Furthermore, we evaluated the consistency of assumptions with external market assessments.

We also examined the accuracy of the Company's previous forecasts by comparing the budgets of previous financial years with actual earnings and by analysing deviations.

We compared the assumptions and data underlying the discount rate, especially the risk-free interest rate, the market risk premium and the beta factor, with our own assumptions and publicly available data. In order to take account of forecast uncertainty, we also examined the impact of potential changes in the discount rate, expected cash flows and the long-term growth rate on fair value (sensitivity analysis) by calculating alternative scenarios and comparing these with the Company's measurements. We verified the Company's calculations to ensure the computational accuracy of the valuation method used.

Our observations

The approach used for impairment testing the interests in Bike24 Service GmbH is appropriate and in line with the accounting policies. The Company's assumptions, estimates and data are appropriate.

Other Information

Management and/or the Supervisory Board are/is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises:

- the unaudited components of the combined management report specified in the Appendix to the Independent Auditor's Report.

Our opinions on the annual financial statements and on the combined management report do not cover the other information, and consequently we do not express an opinion or any other form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in so doing, to consider whether the other information

- is materially inconsistent with the annual financial statements, with the combined management report information audited for content or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or
- otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and the Supervisory Board for the Annual Financial Statements and the Combined Management Report

Management is responsible for the preparation of the annual financial statements that comply, in all material respects, with the requirements of German commercial law applicable to business corporations, and that the annual financial statements give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and financial performance of the Company in compliance with German legally required accounting principles. In addition, management is responsible for such internal control as they, in accordance with German legally required accounting principles, have determined necessary to enable the preparation of annual financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud (i.e., fraudulent financial reporting and misappropriation of assets) or error.

In preparing the annual financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. They also have the responsibility for disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern. In addition, they are responsible for financial reporting based on the going concern basis of accounting, provided no actual or legal circumstances conflict therewith.

Furthermore, management is responsible for the preparation of the combined management report that as a whole provides an appropriate view of the Company's position and is, in all material respects, consistent with the annual financial statements, complies with German legal requirements, and appropriately presents the opportunities and risks of future development. In addition, management is responsible for such arrangements and measures (systems) as they have considered necessary to enable the preparation of a combined management report that is in accordance with the applicable German legal requirements, and to be able to provide sufficient appropriate evidence for the assertions in the combined management report.

The Supervisory Board is responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process for the preparation of the annual financial statements and of the combined management report.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Annual Financial Statements and of the Combined Management Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the annual financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and whether the combined management report as a whole provides an appropriate view of the Company's position and, in all material respects, is consistent with the annual financial statements and the knowledge obtained in the audit, complies with the German legal requirements and appropriately presents the opportunities and risks of future development, as well as to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinions on the annual financial statements and on the combined management report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Section 317 HGB and the EU Audit Regulation and in compliance with German Generally Accepted Standards for Financial Statement Audits promulgated by the Institut der Wirtschaftsprüfer (IDW) will always detect a material misstatement. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these annual financial statements and this combined management report.

We exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the annual financial statements and of the combined management report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinions. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than the risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit of the annual financial statements and of arrangements and measures (systems) relevant to the audit of the combined management report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of these systems.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used by management and the reasonableness of estimates made by management and related disclosures.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in the auditor's report to the related disclosures in the annual financial statements and in the combined management report or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our respective opinions. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to be able to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the annual financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the annual financial statements present the underlying transactions and events in a manner that the annual financial statements give a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and financial performance of the Company in compliance with German legally required accounting principles.
 - Evaluate the consistency of the combined management report with the annual financial statements, its conformity with (German) law, and the view of the Company's position it provides.
 - Perform audit procedures on the prospective information presented by management in the combined management report. On the basis of sufficient appropriate audit evidence we evaluate, in particular, the significant assumptions used by management as a basis for the prospective information, and evaluate the proper derivation of the prospective information from these assumptions. We do not express a separate opinion on the prospective information and on the assumptions used as a basis. There is a substantial unavoidable risk that future events will differ materially from the prospective information.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with the relevant independence requirements, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, the actions taken or safeguards applied to eliminate independence threats.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the annual financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter.
