

Stefan De Loecker

Independent consultant, Hamburg

Born	1967
Place of residence	Hamburg/Germany
Nationality	Belgian

Education and professional career

Stefan De Loecker is an experienced C-level manager with an international background, in-depth experience in strategy development and business model transformation and specific expertise in the areas of brand building, innovation and go-to-market strategies. He also brings with him many years of experience in the management of listed companies.

Stefan De Loecker studied economics in Antwerp, Belgium before starting his career in 1990 with the Nestlé Group. After various positions, he became Managing Director of Maggi GmbH from 2007 to 2008 and at the same time a member of the Executive Board of Nestlé Deutschland AG. From 2008 to 2011, he was CEO of Nestlé Rossiya LLC, Russia. In 2011 he joined Tesco plc in the UK as COO before becoming CEO of Tesco Slovakia.

In 2012 he moved to Beiersdorf AG, initially as Senior Vice President Near East in Dubai, where he was responsible for the markets in the Middle East, Africa and India and later also Americas. In 2014 he was appointed to the Executive Board of Beiersdorf AG. From 2019 to April 2021 he was CEO of Beiersdorf and laid the strategic foundation for digitization, the sustainability strategy and the further internationalization of the company.

Mandates

Stefan De Loecker does not belong to any other statutory supervisory board within the meaning of 125 Paragraph 1 Sentence 5 AktG and no comparable supervisory bodies of domestic and foreign commercial enterprises within the meaning of Section 125 Paragraph 1 Sentence 5 AktG.