Disclosures and Disclaimers

This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that reflect Investar's current views with respect to, among other things, future events and financial performance. Investar generally identifies forward-looking statements by terminology such as "outlook," "believes," "expects," "potential," "continues," "may," "will," "could," "should," "seeks," "approximately," "predicts," "intends," "plans," "estimates," "anticipates," or the negative version of those words or other comparable words.

Any forward-looking statements contained in this presentation are based on the historical performance of Investar and its subsidiaries or on Investar's current plans, estimates and expectations. The inclusion of this forward-looking information should not be regarded as a representation by Investar that the future plans, estimates or expectations by Investar will be achieved. Such forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties and assumptions relating to Investar's operations, financial results, financial condition, business prospects, growth strategy and liquidity. If one or more of these or other risks or uncertainties materialize, or if Investar's underlying assumptions prove to be incorrect, Investar's actual results may vary materially from those indicated in these statements. Investar does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following, any one or more of which could materially affect the outcome of future events: (1) the significant risks and uncertainties for our business, results of operations and financial condition, as well as our regulatory capital and liquidity ratios and other regulatory requirements caused by business and economic conditions generally and in the financial services industry in particular, whether nationally, regionally or in the markets in which we operate, including risks and uncertainties caused by disruptions in the banking industry earlier this year, potential continued higher inflation and interest rates, supply and labor constraints, the war in Ukraine and the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic; (2) our ability to achieve organic loan and deposit growth, and the composition of that growth; (3) changes (or the lack of changes) in interest rates, yield curves and interest rate spread relationships that affect our loan and deposit pricing, including potential continued increases in interest rates in 2023; (4) our ability to identify and enter into agreements to combine with attractive acquisition candidates, finance acquisitions, complete acquisitions after definitive agreements are entered into, and successfully integrate and grow acquired operations; (5) our adoption on January 1, 2023 of ASU 2016-13, and inaccuracy of the assumptions and estimates we make in establishing reserves for credit losses and other estimates; (6) changes in the quality or composition of our loan or investment portfolios, including adverse developments in borrower industries or in the repayment ability of individual borrowers; (7) a reduction in liquidity, including as a result of a reduction in the amount of deposits we hold or other sources of liquidity, which may continue to be adversely impacted by the disruptions in the banking industry earlier this year causing bank depositors to move uninsured deposits to other banks or alternative investments outside the banking industry; (8) changes in the quality and composition of, and changes in unrealized losses in, our investment portfolio, including whether we may have to sell securities before their recovery of amortized cost basis and realize losses; (9) the extent of continuing client demand for the high level of personalized service that is a key element of our banking approach as well as our ability to execute our strategy generally; (10) our dependence on our management team, and our ability to attract and retain qualified personnel; (11) the concentration of our business within our geographic areas of operation in Louisiana, Texas and Alabama; (12) concentration of credit exposure; (13) any deterioration in asset quality and higher loan charge-offs, and the time and effort necessary to resolve problem assets; (14) fluctuations in the price of oil and natural gas; (15) data processing system failures and errors; (16) cyberattacks and other security breaches; and (17) hurricanes, tropical storms, tropical depressions, floods, winter storms, and other adverse weather events, all of which have affected Investar's market areas from time to time; other natural disasters; oil spills and other man-made disasters; acts of terrorism, an outbreak or intensifying of hostilities including the war in Ukraine or other international or domestic calamities, acts of God and other matters beyond our control.

These factors should not be construed as exhaustive. Additional information on these and other risk factors can be found in Item 1A. "Risk Factors" and in the "Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" in Item 7. "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in Investar's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC").

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This presentation contains financial information determined by methods other than in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, or GAAP. These measures and ratios include "tangible common equity," "tangible assets," "tangible equity to tangible assets," "tangible book value per common share," "core noninterest income," "core earnings before noninterest expense," "core noninterest expense," "core earnings before income tax expense," "core income tax expense," "core earnings," "core efficiency ratio," "core return on average assets," "core basic earnings per share," and "core diluted earnings per share." Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures provide information useful to investors in understanding Investar's financial results, and Investar believes that its presentation, together with the accompanying reconciliations, provide a more complete understanding of factors and trends affecting Investar's business and allow investors to view performance in a manner similar to management, the entire financial services sector, bank stock analysts and bank regulators. These non-GAAP measures should not be considered a substitute for GAAP basis measures and results, and Investar strongly encourages investors to review its consolidated financial statements in their entirety and not to rely on any single financial measure. Because non-GAAP financial measures are not standardized, it may not be possible to compare these financial measures with other companies' non-GAAP financial measures having the same or similar names. Reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial measures disclosed in this presentation to the comparable GAAP financial measures are included in the appendix.

Investar Holding Corp. is the Bank Holding Company for Investar Bank

- Headquartered in Baton Rouge, LA
- Founded in 2006
- Full service, commercially-oriented community bank
- 29 branches across Alabama, Louisiana and Texas
- Initial public offering and Nasdaq listing in 2014
- Completed 7 whole bank acquisitions and 1 branch transaction
- 39 consecutive quarters of dividends paid; 8 consecutive years of dividend growth

Mission

Investar is a dynamic full service community bank focused on relationships that create value and opportunities for our customers, employees, shareholders and the community served

Financial Overview – 2nd Quarter 2023

Highlights

- Recorded quarterly net income of $6.5 million in the 2nd quarter.
- Core return on average assets[1] improved to 0.97% for the 2nd quarter compared to 0.76% for the 1st quarter.
- Core noninterest expense[1] decreased $0.3 million to $15.2 million during the 2nd quarter compared to $15.5 million for the 1st quarter.
- Repurchased 92,300 shares during the 2nd quarter. In July, the Board of Directors authorized an additional 350,000 shares for repurchase under our stock repurchase program.
- Tangible book value[1] increased 0.7% (2.8% annualized) during the 2nd quarter to $17.87 per share compared to $17.74 for the 1st quarter.

Liquidity

- Total deposits increased $35.2 million, or 1.6%, at June 30, 2023 to $2.18 billion compared to $2.15 billion at March 31, 2023.
- Uninsured deposits were 34% of total deposits at June 30, 2023.
- Utilized the Federal Reserve's Bank Term Funding Program to secure fixed rate funding for a one-year term and reduced short-term Federal Home Loan Bank advances, which are priced daily. The Bank utilized this source of funding due to it's lower rate, the ability to prepay the obligations without penalty, and as a means to lock in funding.

Loans and Credit Quality

- Total loans decreased $24.2 million, or 1.1%, to $2.08 billion at June 30, 2023 compared to $2.11 billion at March 31, 2023.
- Nonperforming loans were 0.34% of total loans at June 30, 2023 compared to 0.27% of total loans at March 31, 2023.

Loan Portfolio – 2nd Quarter Update

- Loan yield improved to 5.44% for the 2nd quarter compared to 5.27% for the 1st quarter.
- Total loans decreased $24.2 million, or 1.1%, to $2.08 billion at June 30, 2023, compared to $2.11 billion at March 31, 2023.
- Net recoveries of $2.4 million in the loan portfolio primarily attributable to recoveries on one loan relationship that became impaired in the third quarter of 2021 as a result of Hurricane Ida.
- Decrease in the business lending portfolio compared to March 31, 2023 is primarily driven by lower demand due to higher rates.

[1] Adjustment to noninterest income recorded upon completion of the sale of the Alice and Victoria branches for remaining discount on loans sold.

[2] Income from insurance proceeds represents nontaxable income related to an insurance policy for the former Chief Financial Officer of Investar and the Bank.

[3] Change in net asset value of other investments represents unrealized gains or losses or Investar's investments in Small Business Investment Companies and other investment funds and is included in other operating income in the accompanying consolidated statements of income.

[4] Severance in the fourth quarter of 2022 represents a comprehensive severance package for the former Chief Financial Officer of Investar and the Bank.

[5] ERC represents a broad based refundable payroll tax credit that incentivized businesses to retain employees on the payroll during the COVID-19 pandemic.

[6] Adjustments to noninterest expenses directly attributable to the sale of the Alice and Victoria, Texas branch locations, consisting of $0.4 million of occupancy expense to terminate the remaining contractually obligated lease payments, $0.1 million of salaries and employee benefits for severance, $0.1 million of professional fees for legal and consulting services, and $0.1 million of depreciation and amortization to accelerate the amortization of the remaining core deposit intangible.

[7] Core income tax expense is calculated using the effective tax rates of 18.7%, 18.7%, 18.9% and 20.7% for the quarters ended June 30, 2023, March 31, 2023, September 30, 2022 and June 30, 2022, respectively. Core income tax expense for the quarter ended December 31, 2022 is calculated using an effective tax rate of 20.0%, which is adjusted to account for the exclusion of the income from insurance proceeds, which is nontaxable income, from the calculation of core earnings.

[8] Core earnings used in calculation. No adjustments were made to average assets.
