

Andreas Schneider

Member of the Board

Andreas Schneider (non-executive independent board member and member of the Audit and Risk Committee) has been a finance executive for more than 20 years. After completing his degree in business administration with focus on Finance at the School of Economics and Business Administration in Berne, Andreas joined UBS in 1997 where he subsequently worked in M+A advisory. In 2003, he joined Dufry (today Avolta), a leading global travel retailer, where he held various roles in Finance including Group CFO, a role he held from 2012 to March 2019. From January to October 2020, he was interim CFO of Selecta. He is an independent senior advisor since 2020.